11. (ii.) Moreover, if by reason of age, infirmity, loss, or other cause the Commissioner is satisfied that the payment of income tax would entail hardship on any person liable to pay the tax, he may release such person in whole or in part from liability to pay the tax for that year.

PENALTIES.

72. (1.) Any person, whether or not liable to taxation under this Act, who—
   (i.)    (ii.) Knowingly makes or delivers any false return or makes any false answer, whether oral or in writing, in relation to his property or income, or any matter or thing affecting his liability to or exemption from income tax; or
   (iii.) By any falsehood, neglect, fraud, art, or contrivance whatsoever used or practised, or by or under any instrument made, signed, executed, taken, or received, evades or avoids or attempts to evade or avoid assessment of any income, whether liable to income tax or not, or the payment of any income tax—

(2.) Whenever upon any complaint for an offence within the meaning of paragraph (iii.) hereof the Court before whom the same is brought holds the matter of the complaint to be proved, there shall be two convictions: the first in the usual form adjudging the defendant to pay the penalty imposed and such costs as are allowed, and the second adjudging the defendant to pay double the amount of the income tax of which he has sought to evade or avoid the payment.

PENALTIES—continued.

2 Edw. VII., No. 10. (1 Dec., 1902.)
4 Edw. VII., No. 9., (1 Dec., 1904.)

The first conviction shall be forthwith enforceable; but the second conviction shall not be formally drawn up until the amount of the income tax of which the defendant has attempted to evade or avoid payment has been ascertained by the Commissioner, who shall, as soon as practicable, proceed to ascertain and fix the same.

The Commissioner shall give notice to the defendant of the amount so ascertained, and if the defendant within fourteen days from the giving of such notice gives the Commissioner notice of objection to such amount he shall be entitled to have such objection heard and determined by the Court of Review.

At any time after such amount has been ascertained by the Commissioner, or upon objection by such Court, the second conviction may be formally drawn up adjudging the defendant to pay double the amount so ascertained or determined, and shall be forthwith enforceable.

(3.) Any person who aids or assists in any manner whatsoever to commit any offence within the meaning of paragraph (iii.) hereof shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

72A. When the Commissioner has reasonable grounds for believing that any person (herein termed "the agent") does not reside in Queensland, and that the agent has while in Queensland sold or disposed of any property for any other person, and has received or is entitled to receive as remuneration or part remuneration for such sale or disposal any sum by way of commission or salary, and that the agent intends to leave Queensland without paying income tax, the Commissioner or any officer authorised by him in that behalf, may at any time require the agent to forthwith make a return of the amount of every such commission, and may forthwith assess the income tax payable by the agent thereon and demand immediate payment of the same, and if the same is not forthwith paid, or arrangements satisfactory to the Commissioner are not made for payment, may without warrant cause the agent to be arrested by any member of the police force and detained until he can be brought before justices upon a complaint for evading the payment of the tax.

76. (1.) Any person who obstructs or attempts to obstruct any officer acting in the discharge of his duty under this Act, or refuses or neglects to answer any question put by any such officer relating to any income belonging to such person, or as to any deductions claimed or allowed in respect of such income or any part thereof, or gives any false or evasive answer, or in any manner whatsoever fails to comply with any of the provisions of this Act for which no penalty is expressly provided, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

(2.) If any company makes default in complying with any provisions of this Act, such company or the public officer thereof shall, where no other penalty is provided by this Act, be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day during which such default continues:

And every director and manager of the company who knowingly and wilfully authorises or permits such default shall be liable to the like penalty.

78. The Commissioner may stay or compound proceedings for any penalty, and may reward any person who informs of any offence against this Act or assists in the recovery of any penalty.

COAL MINING.

Specification of Taxes, Duties, &c.	Annual rent for license, per acre. £	s.	d.
Any person who is desirous of prospecting Crown lands for coal may make application in the prescribed form to the proper Warden for a license to occupy any Crown lands described in the application, and not being of greater area than six hundred and forty acres, for the purpose of searching for coal thereon	0	0	6

The license may be renewed by the Minister for another year upon payment of a like sum of sixpence per acre of the land comprised therein, and upon proof to the satisfaction of the Minister that the licensee has during the period of the license used reasonable endeavours to search for coal upon the land, and has not used the land for any purpose not hereby authorised.

If during the period of the license or the renewed license the licensee desires so to do he may apply for a lease of any part of the land comprised in the license not exceeding three hundred and twenty acres in extent, and his application shall have precedence over the application of any other person for the same land.

The yearly rent of land leased for the purpose of mining for coal shall, instead of being at the rate of ten shillings per acre, be at the rate of sixpence per acre, and there shall also be reserved in the lease a royalty at the rate of threepence for every ton of coal raised from the land during the first ten years of the term of the lease, and at the rate of sixpence for every ton raised during the remainder of the term.

The times and mode of ascertaining the amount of any royalty so payable and the time for payment thereof shall be prescribed by the lease.

If land leased for the purpose of mining for coal is used for the purpose of mining for any other mineral, rent shall become payable in respect thereof at the rate of ten shillings per acre in addition to the royalty, if any, payable in respect of coal raised therefrom.

SPECIAL PRIVILEGE TO DISCOVERER OF NEW COAL FIELD, OR COAL AT GREAT DEPTHS.

When a licensee under the provisions of this Act—

(1) Discovers payable coal at a distance of not less than fifteen miles from any payable coal previously discovered, or,

(2) Discovers a payable seam of coal at a depth of not less than six hundred feet from the surface, he shall be entitled to a lease of six hundred and forty acres of land, instead of three hundred and twenty acres as hereinbefore provided, and the royalty payable in respect of coal raised by the lessee shall in the first-mentioned case as to all coal, and in the second-mentioned case as to all coal raised from a depth of six hundred feet and upwards, be at the rate of one penny for every ton, instead of threepence as hereinbefore provided.

Note.—The amount actually realised bears but a small proportion to the amount sought to be recovered; but it must be borne in mind that in many cases the defendant, on a levy being made, becomes insolvent, and any property seized passes to the Official Trustee for the benefit of the Creditors, and consequently no sale by the Sheriff takes place. Many also of these writs of fieri facias were for large amounts, the suitors holding mortgages over and being in possession of the property seized, and were merely lodged for the purpose of obtaining the Sheriff's title for the conveyance of the interest, the purchase money being nominal.
